Something over two hours later, as Mr. Tom Martin was putting things to rights in his domain, the Dry Goods Emporium, previous to his departure for the evening's gossip and checkers at the drug store, he stumbled over something soft lying on the floor behind a counter. The thing rose and would have evaded him, but he put out his hands and plucked it and dragged it to the show window, where the light of the fading day defined his capture. The capture shrieked and squirmed and fought earnestly. Grasped by the shoulder, he held a lean, fierce-eyed, undersized girl of fourteen clad in a ragged cotton garment, unless the coat of dust she wore over all might be esteemed another. Her cheeks were sallow, and her brow was already shrewdly lined, and her eyes were as hypocritical as they were savage. She was very thin and little, but old Tom's brown face grew a shade nearer white when the light fell upon her.

"You're no Plattville girl," he said sharply.

"You lie!" cried the child. "You lie! I am! You leave me go, will you? I'm lookin' for pap, and you're a liar!"

"You crawled in here to sleep after your seven mile walk, didn't you?" Martin went on.

"You're a liar!" she screamed.

"Look here," said Martin slowly, "you go back to Six Crossroads and tell your folks that if anything happens to a hair of Mr. Harkless' head every shanty in your town will burn, and your grandfather, and your father, and your uncles, and your brothers, and your cousins, and your second cousins, and your third cousins will never have the good luck to see the penitentiary. Reckon you can remember that message? But before I let you go to carry it I guess you might as well hand out the paper they sent you over here with."

His prisoner fell into a paroxysm of rage.

"I'll git pap to kill ye!" she shrieked, striking at him. "I don't know nothin' bout yer Six Crossroads, ner no papers, ner yer Mr. Harkless' neither, ner you, ye razorbacked ole devil. Pap 'll kill ye! Leave me go! Leave me go! Pap 'll kill ye! I'll git him to kill ye!" Suddenly her struggles ceased, her eyes closed, her tense little muscles relaxed, and she dropped toward the floor. The old man shifted his grip to support her, and in an instant she twisted out of his hands and sprang out of reach, her eyes shining with triumph and venom.

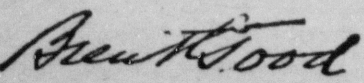

"Yahay, Mr. Razorback!" she shrieked. "How's that fer high? Pap 'll kill ye Sunday! Ye'll be screechin' in hell in a week, an' we 'll set up an' drink our applejack an' laff!"

Martin pursued her lumberingly, but she was agile as a monkey and ran dodging up and down the counters and mocked him, singing, "Gran mammy, Tipsey Toe." At last she tired of the game and darted out of the door, flinging back a hoarse laugh at him as she went. He followed, but when he reached the street she was a mere shadow flitting under the courthouse trees. He looked after her forebodingly, then turned his eyes toward the Palace hotel on the corner. the Emporium, tried them and dropped the keys in his pocket.

As he crossed the square to the drug store, where his cronies awaited him, he turned again to look at the figure of the musing journalist. "He ought to go out there," he said and shook his head sadly. "I don't reckon Plattville's any too spary for that young man. Five years he's been here. Well, it's a good thing for us, but I guess it ain't exactly high life for him." He kicked a stick out of his way impatiently. "Now, where'd that nap run to?" he grumbled.

The imp was lying under the courthouse steps. When the sound of Martin's footsteps had passed away she crept cautiously from her hiding place and stole through the ungrounded grass to the fence opposite the hotel. Here she stretched herself flat in the weeds and took from the tangled masses of her hair, where it was tied with a string, a rolled up, crumpled slip of greasy paper. With this in her fingers she lay peering under the fence, her fierce eyes fixed unwinkingly on the editor of the Herald.

The street ran flat and gray in the slowly gathering dusk straight to the western horizon, where the sunset umbers were strewn in long, glowing, dark streaks. The maple trees were clean cut, shrouded against the pale rose and pearl tints of the sky above, and a tenderness seemed to shimmer in the air. The editor often vowed to himself he would watch no more sunsets in Plattville. He thought they were making him morbid. Could he have shared them it would have been different.

His long, melancholy face grew longer and more melancholy in the twilight, while William Todd patiently whittled near by. Plattville had often discussed the editor's habit of silence, and possibly the reason Mr. Harkless was such a quiet man was that there was nobody for him to talk to; but his hearers did not agree, for the population of Carroll county was a thing of pride, being greater than that of several bordering counties.

A bent figure came slowly down the street, and William Todd hailed it cheerfully. "Evening, Mr. Fiske."

"A good evening, Mr. Todd," answered the old man, pausing. "Ah, Mr. Harkless, I was looking for you." He had not seemed to be looking for anything beyond the boundaries of his own dreams, but he approached Harkless, tugging nervously at some papers in his pocket. "I have completed my notes for our Saturday edition. It was quite easy, sir. There is much doing."

"Thank you, Mr. Fiske," said Harkless as he took the manuscript. "Have you finished your paper on the earlier Christian symbolism? I hope the Herald may have the honor of printing it." This was a form they used.

"I shall be the recipient of honor, sir," returned Fiske. "Your kind offer will speed my work; but I fear, Mr. Harkless, I very much fear, that your kindness alone prompts it. For, deeply as I desire it, I cannot truthfully say that my essays appear to increase our circulation." He made an odd, troubled gesture as he went on; "They do not seem to read them here, although Mr. Martin assures me that he carefully peruses my article on Chaldean decoration whenever he rearranges his exhibition windows." He plodded on a few paces, then turned abruptly.

"What is it, Fiske?" asked Harkless. Fiske stood for a moment as though about to speak; then he smiled faintly, shook his head and went his way. Harkless waved his hand to him in farewell and, drawing a pencil and a pad from his pocket, proceeded to injure his eyes in the waning twilight by the editorial perusal of the items his staff had just left in his hands. He glanced over them meditatively, making alterations here and there.

The last one Fiske had written as follows:

Miss Sherwood of Rouen, whom Miss Briscoe knew at the Misses Jennings' finishing school in New York, is a guest of Judge Briscoe's household.

Fiske's items were written in ink. There was a blank space beneath the last. At the bottom of the page something had been scribbled in pencil. Harkless vainly tried to decipher it;

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls, Mrs. Pinkham believes that our girls are often pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries.

Nothing is allowed to interfere with studies, the girls must be pushed to the front and graduated with honor; often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality. Often it is never recovered. Miss Pratt says,—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run-down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months."

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness,"—Miss ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

The twilight had fallen too deep, and the writing was too faint, so he struck a match and held it close to the paper. The action betokened only a languid interest. But when he caught sight of the first of the four subscribed lines he sat up straight in his chair, with a sharp ejaculation. At the bottom of Fiske's page was written in a dainty feminine hand of a type he had not seen for years:

"The time has come," the waltz said, "To talk of many things—Of shoes and ships and sealing wax And cabbages and kings."

He put the paper in his pocket and set off rapidly down the village street. At his departure William Todd looked up quickly. Then he got upon his feet, with a yawn, and quietly followed the editor. In the dusk a tattered little figure rose up from the weeds across the way and stole noiselessly after William. He was in his shirt sleeves, his waistcoat unbuttoned and loose. On the nearest corner Mr. Todd encountered a fellow townsman who had been pacing up and down in front of a cottage crooning to a protective baby held in his arms. He had paused in his vigil to stare after Harkless.

"Where's he bound fer, William?" inquired the man with the baby.

"Briscoes," answered William, pursuing his way.

"I reckoned he would be," observed the other, turning to his wife, who sat on the doorstep. "I reckoned so when I see that lady at the lecture last night."

The woman rose to her feet. "Hi, Bill Todd!" she said. "What ye got on to the back of yer vest?" William paused, put his hand behind him and encountered a paper pinned to the dangling strap of his waistcoat. The woman ran to him and unpinned the paper. It bore a writing. They took it to where the yellow lamplight shone out through the open door and read:

der Sir—FoLer harkis al y ples an galld him yor kst venagins is clost; Harkis not Got 3 das to live we come in wite.

"What ye think, William?" asked the man with the baby anxiously. But the woman gave the youth a sharp push with her hand. "They never das to do it," she cried; "never in the world! You hurry, Bill Todd. Don't leave him out of your sight one second."

MORE SEA FIGHTING

Japan Again Defeats Russia in a Spirited Battle at Port Arthur.

LASTED FOR TWO HOURS

Russia Driven to Cover After Torpedo Boat Is Sunk, a Cruiser Put in Sinking Condition.

A Second Cruiser Badly Damaged—Japanese Vessels Withdraw in Good Order.

London, March 1.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Yui Row dated Feb. 29, says: "Fifteen Japanese warships furiously bombarded Port Arthur from 10 until 12 o'clock this morning. The Russian cruisers Novik, Askold and Bayan, accompanied by four torpedo boats, steamed out to meet the attack. They were, however, forced to retire. The Askold was in a sinking condition. The Novik was badly damaged and a torpedo boat was sunk. The Russian battleship Retvizan was again damaged."

As usual the Japanese did not remain long enough off the harbor to enable the gunners at the forts to get their range. Again, also the same three cruisers, the Bayan, the Askold and the Novik, came out to meet the attack, and this suggests that either they were the only effective ships there or that the larger battleships were unable to get out.

BLOCKADE RUMORED

St. Petersburg Hears That Vladivostock Is Tied Up.

St. Petersburg, March 1.—Direct confirmation of the report from Hakodate that Vladivostock is blockaded by the Japanese vessels cannot be obtained here, but it is considered not improbable. During the Japanese landing operations in Korea the Russian warships to the north were a constant menace and blockading them would be the most effective means of securing non-interference. Furthermore, it is worthy of note that for more than a week no word has been allowed to come from Vladivostock and this in itself seems strong presumptive evidence that important events are transpiring.

The report from Liao Yang, Manchuria, that the Japanese fleet has received orders to attack and capture Port Arthur on March 1st at all costs, coupled with the comparison of Port Arthur and Sevastopol made by the Novoe Vremya, has created a profound impression, and has added to the belief that the Japanese possibly intend to commence land and sea operations against Port Arthur sooner than was anticipated.

Korea Gives to Red Cross.

Tokio, March 1.—The Korean court has donated $100,000 to the Red Cross hospitals.

The ministers of the United States and Great Britain, at Seoul, are favorably inclined to the Japanese Korean protocol.

The Tokio government has instructed the local authorities to extend special protection and facilities to the Russian consul, at Fusan, Korea, who reached Moji, Japan last night and proceeded thence for Nagasaki, whence he will sail for home.

Cigarettes Donated.

Moscow, March 1.—The nobles' club here has voted $50,000 for the navy fund and $25,000 for the Red Cross society. A tobaccoist named Bostanoglo, has given 2,000,000 cigarettes, and a sugar refiner, H. Tereschkenko, has donated a carload of sugar for the Red Cross society. The Grand Duchess Serge is sending a field church to the front for use of the army.

Saint's Aid Invoked.

Nijni, Novgorod, Russia, March 1.—Reports from Saroff, province of Tamboff, say that pilgrims from various parts of Russia are arriving there to solicit the intervention of St. Seraphim in behalf of their relatives. St. Seraphim was canonized by the czar last summer on account of his fame as a miracle worker.

To Promote Shipping.

Washington, March 1.—Senator Patterson introduced a bill yesterday providing that a rebate of 5 per cent shall be made on all articles imported into the United States from foreign countries in vessels of the United States where the specific and ad valorem duties amount to less than 25 per cent of the value of the articles, and a rebate of 10 per cent where such duties amount to more than 25 per cent of the value. To increase the number of American registered vessels, the bill provides that for three years foreign vessels may be admitted to American register on the payment of tonnage tax ranging from $1 to $7 per gross tonnage and measurement.

Twelve Burn to Death.

Roberval, Quebec, March 1.—Twelve lives were lost in a fire which destroyed the home of Thomas Guay, at St. Felicien. In the home at the time were the eight small children of Thomas Guay, Mrs. Phillip Gagnon and her three small children. Both Gagnon and Guay, the fathers, were absent working in the woods.

ALL EYES ON EIGHTH

Battle Royal On Today in Eighth Congressional District.

Indianapolis, March 1.—An important political contest is going on in the Eighth congressional district today. The prize is the congressional nomination on the Republican ticket. The candidates are Congressman Cromer of Muncie and M. M. Dunlap, former mayor of Anderson, who has considerable reputation throughout the state as a stump speaker. It is the first experiment of the Republicans in making a district nomination by direct vote. It may result in the defeat of Cromer for while it is conceded generally that he is a fine politician he is placed where a direct appeal to the people must be made. As the situation looked at the close of the canvass last night the vote of Madison and Delaware counties will pretty nearly decide the contest as it was estimated that the two candidates would come near splitting even in the other counties. So if Madison county stands more loyally by Dunlap than Delaware does by Cromer there may be a new face among the Republican congressmen.

The election of Colonel Harry B. Smith as chairman of the Marion county Republican committee emphasizes the opinion advanced after the defeat of the city ticket here last fall that the word "finale" had been written for the Bookwalter machine. The latter made a gallant fight to elect Sheriff Robert Metzger but he was defeated by a narrow margin. The significant feature, however, is that a candidate backed by the anti-machine forces should have won. It is generally conceded that the result means an entirely new deal in local Republican politics. The rule of the Bookwalter machine, it may be stated at this time, was much shorter than that of the average political machine. It came quick and was quickly finished for it had not been in existence more than eight years. However, in that time it dictated with an iron hand. The election of Colonel Smith probably means the renomination of Congressman Overstreet without opposition and the nomination of men for county officers who are not under the control of the old machine.

Captain D. F. Allen of Frankfort was here today on business. He is one of the leading Democrats of Indiana and is frequently mentioned for a place on the state ticket this time. His presence here caused a revival of the gossips as to the makeup of the ticket. If he will accept he will probably be nominated for secretary of state. He was frequently mentioned for that place two years ago but he did not become a candidate. There is considerable talk of Wm. O'Keefe, treasurer of Marshall county, for state treasurer. He is the treasurer who agreed to turn over to the county all of the earnings of the county funds. Democrats in his section believe he would be a strong man for the state ticket. John B. Stoll of South Bend, the veteran editor, is now enjoying a wide mention for the nomination for governor. The party leaders are confident they will get out a strong ticket even though the field is not bubbling over with material now.

The indorsement of the candidacy of J. Frank Hanly of Lafayette for the Republican nomination for governor by Warrick county has formed the most interesting bit of political gossip of the last ten days. Warrick county is the home of Congressman J. A. Hemenway and very naturally there is speculation among politicians as to whether or not this indorsement means that he is espousing the cause of Lafayette men. Hemenway is very popular throughout his district and there is no doubt but that he could have prevented the indorsement had he desired. The followers of Hanly are greatly elated as they feel that if Hemenway is not for them that he will not offer any opposition which is considerable in view of the recent record that he expected to support W. L. Taylor of this city.

Want Tobacco Tariff Reduced.

Washington, March 1.—Secretary Taft yesterday transmitted to the house the petition of the tobacco workers' guild of the Philippine Islands, praying for a reduction in the tariff on tobacco. The guild is declared to represent 6,000 tobacco workers. The petition states that these workers received twice the wages under Spanish rule that they do now, the daily wage at that time being 50 cents. Prices of the necessities of life it is said have increased three-fold under American rule.

Glass Factory Starts.

North Vernon, Ind., March 1.—The fires were relighted at the North Vernon glass works a week ago and the work of blowing chimneys began yesterday. The output for the remainder of the season is all contracted, though at low price. One hundred and twenty-five persons are employed. The industry is a good one for the town. The payroll is $2,000 a week. In connection with the works is a box factory employing eight or ten persons.

Lake Superior Frozen.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 1.—A special to the Sentinel from Bessemer, Mich., says: Lake Superior is frozen over at this point, something that has not occurred before in the memory of the oldest inhabitants. A party of Canadian Indians are camped at the mouth of Black river, having journeyed over the ice from the north shore with their dogs and sleds.

SHOT BY ROBBER

Mail Agent on Alabama Railroad Killed by a Negro Bandit.

ANOTHER IS WOUNDED

Robber Is Run Down and Captured by Bloodhounds After Having a Leg Crushed.

Four Companies of Mississippi Militia Guarding Jail to Prevent Lynching.

Birmingham, Ala., March 1.—According to reports received here by the officials of the Alabama Great Southern railroad, two postal clerks were shot on north-bound train No. 2, two miles north of Meridian, Miss., during an attempt to rob the train. The shooting was done by Jim Paris, a negro, who boarded the train in the Meridian yards as it was pulling out. Before it was under good headway, Paris entered the postal car and opened fire on J. T. Stockton and A. J. Bass, killing Stockton instantly and wounding Bass in the arm. The negro then seized a package of registered letters and jumped off. In leaving the train he fell and had one leg crushed under the wheels, but managed to drag himself three miles. Bloodhounds were obtained at Meridian, the train having backed to that place. Their scent led to the capture of Paris at daylight. Several registered letters were found in his pocket. He was taken to jail at Meridian. The railroad officials say three or four negroes were involved in the plot to rob the train, though only one of them appears to have entered the postal car. Stockton, the dead clerk, lived at Meridian and Bass's home was near Birmingham.

The killing of Express Messenger Stockton has caused much excitement. After Paris was placed in jail a mob of considerable proportions gathered about the stronghold. Fearing a lynching the sheriff notified Governor Vandaman, and the chief executive ordered out the local militia company.

Three full companies of state troops surround the county jail in which is lodged J. P. Paris, a negro, who is charged with the killing of John R. Stockton, a mail clerk, the serious wounding of J. A. Bass, another mail clerk, and the robbery of the mail car on the Alabama Great Southern train which left Memphis for Birmingham.

LODGE CONTROVERSY

Sheriff Is Injured While Serving Papers.

Boston, March 1.—While attempting to serve notice of a libel suit of William Miller, of St. Louis, supreme master workman of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, Deputy Sheriff Silsby was severely injured. As a result of the schism in the order, John Symonds, of Lynn, grand master workman of the state lodge, entered libel proceedings against Miller, damages being set at $10,000 and Deputy Sheriff Silsby had been trying to locate the St. Louis man for several days. Last night the officer was notified that Miller was on his way to the headquarters of the national organization and the sheriff waited outside the door for him to appear.

Miller escaped by darting into the headquarters and slamming the door on Sheriff Silsby's hand when the officer attempted to seize him. Three of the sheriff's fingers were fractured. The doors were then locked, bolted, chained and padlocked.

Governor Vandaman and Lynchings.

Jackson, Miss., March 1.—Governor Vandaman has given an interview on the subject of lynching, which, in view of his utterances during the campaign has much importance. The governor, in concluding the interview, said: "I can sympathize thoroughly with one whose friend or relative has been outraged or atrociously murdered by a black brute, and I am not going to censure people who act a little in discretion under the influence of passion thus aroused, but there is one thing certain, the law must be upheld and so long as I occupy the gubernatorial chair I shall do all within my power to see that the laws are enforced. The courts must perform their functions. When this is done the people will be satisfied."

Traffic Stopped in Michigan.

Bay City, Mich., March 1.—The Michigan Central railroad has abandoned all trains between Bay City and Mackinac. The worst snow storm of twenty-five years is raging. At Standish, Grayling and Sterling the drifts are ten feet deep. At Standish a double-header passenger train is in the snow and the passengers have been taken off. Snow plows have been unable to relieve several other trains. The Detroit and Mackinac railroad is also blocked, all Alpena trains being cancelled.

Bad Storm in New York.

New York, March 1.—In many parts of New York state a veritable blizzard is raging. At Rochester a driving snow storm was accompanied by thunder and sharp flashes of lightning. The storm at that place was reported to be one of the worst of the season.

Improving the Navy.

Washington, March 1.—Important to the efficiency of the American navy was the action of Secretary Moody in signing the order for the equipping of the eighteen battleships and armored cruisers now building with submerged torpedoes. The board on construction recently decided to omit torpedo tubes from all battleships. There was such a protest, however, from many officers in the navy that at the instance of the secretary the board reconsidered its decision. It is believed that the torpedo tubes with which the Jap battleships are equipped are responsible for the damage to the Russian battleships in the Port Arthur day attack as the Russian vessels were hit below the water line.

Got Dowie On the Run.

Melbourne, March 1.—John Alexander Dowie's meeting in the Exhibition building was broken up by the crowd shouting and singing comic songs. He was obliged to abandon the meeting and was himself chased around the city by the rougher element, the mob yelling challenges to him to justify himself as a prophet. Public antagonism is so strong that Dowie has been refused rooms at a fashionable hotel.

DON'T LISTEN

To what people say when they would discourage your hope of exchanging womanly weakness and sickness for perfect health. Women who have been invalids for years, scarcely able to be up half the time, and the other half of their time spent in bed, have been made healthy, hearty women by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures the womanly diseases which undermine the strength. It establishes regularity, dries weakening, inflames and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"With pleasure I send a few lines to let you know that I feel much better than for eight years before taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mrs. Pierce Geise, of 52 West Philadelphia Street, York, Penn'a. "I will recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to every person who may be troubled with female weakness and begin to think I would never be well. If I had continued the treatment prescribed by my doctor I don't know what would have become of me. When my treatment was commenced my weight was 108 lbs.; at present it is 130. Have healthy color and my friends say I look well. My best thanks to you and my best wishes too, for what you have done for me."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women. The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

No doubt the sentences of Machen, Groff and Lorenz, convicted of frauds in the postal department, seem very severe to them and their friends, as their conviction was surprising. But the perpetrators of such frauds never see things as outsiders and honest men do. They have persuaded themselves that a little speculating "on the side" at the expense of the government was no great wrong, and that a great and rich government could afford to overlook such small grafts. That, of course, is a very erroneous view. There is no more serious crime than defrauding the government by its own employees, and the law should be strictly enforced against all such culprits. Two years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000 each must be a stunning blow to the defendants, but as the jury found them guilty it is none too severe.—Journal.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Republicans Elect Delegates and Elector at Columbus.

Special to the REPUBLICAN.

COLUMBUS, Ind., March 1.—The republican district convention was called to order at 1 o'clock today by District Chairman W. E. Springer, of Elizabethtown.

John M. Lewis, of Seymour was elected permanent chairman and made a rousing speech on taking the chair. Harry Martin, of Franklin, was made secretary of the convention.

Resolutions were adopted commending the administration of President Roosevelt and endorsing him for re-nomination; commending both United States senators and the republican delegation in congress as among the most influential in the national legislature, and commending Senator Beveridge for his able and commendable administration of the state under Governor Darrin and the other state officers; referring to the death of Senator Jones and deploring his loss; endorsing warmly O. H. Montgomery for superior judge and Hugh Th. Miller for lieutenant governor; endorsing the administration in its acts concerning the Panama canal.

Delegates elected to the national convention were Jacob M. Bauer, of Lawrenceburg, and Otis W. Olcott, of Patriot.

As alternates Thos. B. Wood, of Franklin, and Louis F. Tracy, of Whiteland.

Frank S. Jones, of Versailles, was made elector for the Fourth district.

Several candidates for state offices were present and addressed the convention. W. L. Taylor, of Indianapolis, and J. Frank Hanley, of Lafayette, candidates for governor; Hugh Th. Miller, of Columbus, candidate for lieutenant governor; Geo. W. Self, of Corydon, and L. B. Nash, of Tipton, candidates for reporter of supreme court, and B. F. Johnson, of Fowler, candidate for statistician.

FEBRUARY WEATHER AND CROPS.

Summary of Daily Local Observations.

February, 1904, was cold, dry and dark, with frequent abrupt temperature changes. There was a thunderstorm with a fall of hail on the 6th, heavy sleet fell on the 18th and there were cold waves on the 3d, 7th and 15th. The prevailing winds, frequently strong, were north-westerly. The total precipitation was 2.65 inches, the heaviest rainfall in 24 hours was 0.70 of an inch on the 7th, and snow fell during the month to the depth of 5.50 inches. Snow covered the ground during about one half of the month. Wheat made poor growth, the stand is light and the outlook is not promising. Grasses are in fair condition and the fruits buds are apparently un-injured.

Rain or snow fell on 8 days, 10 days were clear, 12 were partly cloudy and 7 were cloudy. The warmest day was the 7th, with a temperature mean of 57 degrees; the coldest day was the 17th, with a mean of only 11 degrees, the greatest daily range of temperature was 48 degrees and the monthly range was 66 degrees. Temperatures: Maximum, 67 degrees on the 6th; minimum, 1 degree on the 3d, and the monthly mean was 28.2 degrees above zero. At the close of the month the frost was entirely out of the ground and the soil and roads were wet and muddy.

JOHN ALDO FORSYTHE, Observer Weather Bureau.

Arraigned at New Albany.

Cyrus E. McCrady, recently cashier of the First National bank, was arraigned before Commissioner George B. Cardwell at New Albany today for his preliminary hearing. He waived an examination and his bond was fixed at $5000 for his appearance at the next term of United States court which meets at Indianapolis in May. Judge Anderson presiding, Mr. McCrady's bond was not arranged until this afternoon and the wakened to Indianapolis on the 3:35 train.

His attorney, J. H. Shea, took the bond up on the next train for approval by the United States marshal and they will return home this evening.

In reply to inquiries we have pleasure in announcing that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is like the solid preparation of that admirable remedy in that it cleanses and heals membranes affected by nasal catarrh. There is no drying or sneezing. The Liquid Cream Balm is adapted to use by patients who have trouble inhaling through the nose and prefer spraying. The price, including spraying tube, is 75 cents. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

Harry Galbraith, of Terrell, Texas, who was called here by the death of his brother, Dr. T. S. Galbraith, left for home this morning.

Mrs. S. C. Love and little daughter, Dorothy, who has been visiting Mrs. Jerry Anderson for several days, went to Chestnut Ridge this morning to visit relatives.

RUN DOWN AND NERVOUS.

Vinol Completely Restored Mrs. Burns' Health.

W. F. Peter Drug Co. Agree to Return Money if Vinol Fails.

"Many people right here in Seymour are all run down, hardly able to drag about, don't know what ails them. This condition is probably caused by a cold or cough, which is hard to cure, overwork or too close confinement to business. Such people need Vinol," said Mr. Peter of the W. F. Peter Drug Co., and the following letter is only one of many which we are constantly receiving showing what Vinol will do.

Mrs. W. T. Burns of Memphis, Tenn., who is national press correspondent of the W. R. C., writes, "Last winter I caught a severe cold which it seemed impossible for me to get rid of. I became run down, lost my appetite and flesh and felt nervous and irritable. Vinol was recommended, and it certainly worked wonders for me; it increased my appetite, cured my indigestion, cough and nervousness, and I sleep soundly. I consider Vinol a wonderful remedy."

MRS. W. T. BURNS.

Vinol cures such conditions because it is the only preparation in the world that contains every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements found in fresh cod liver oil and without one drop of useless cod liver oil and emulsions. It imparts in a natural manner strength and vigor to every organ of the body, aids digestion and makes rich, red blood.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, everything is printed on the bottle; it contains iron, and in a highly concentrated form, all of the vitalizing properties contained in cod liver oil. It is delicious and the weakest stomach can retain it.

We ask every run down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in Seymour and every person suffering from stubborn colds, hanging-on coughs, bronchitis or insipient consumption to try Vinol on our guarantee. It costs nothing if it fails to give satisfaction. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

HIGH MOUNT.

The weather still remains warm and muddy.

Thomas Gallion lost a fine horse one day last week.

Hick Bennett and Hagle Sutherland, near Columbus, visited the family of Wm. Sutherland last week.

Buck Sutherland will move to his farm near Columbus this week.

G. W. Lockman, of Brown county, was in this community last week buying stock.

Wm. Sutherland and wife visited the family of Albert Bennett, near Columbus last week.

Wm. McKain and wife, of Shields, visited Buck Sutherland and family Sunday.

Homer McKain and Jacob Grimes delivered a nice lot of hoops at Ewing last week.

William Dunn made a business trip to Seymour one day last week.

Samuel Brown will build a new barn in the near future.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their cough and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by C. W. Milhous.

OAK GROVE.

Miss Goldie Dixon has the measles. August Rotert and son George attended church at Waymansville Sunday morning.

Mrs. Jennie Anderson who has been visiting relatives at Cincinnati for the past two weeks, returned home Sunday morning.

Mrs. Minnie Kliffman received a letter from her niece, Miss Minnie Peters last week stating that she was still in Chicago. She was thought to be burned in the Iroquois Theatre fire.

Our school is very small on account of the measles. Two of John Tiemeyer's children broke out in the school.

The Death Angel has again visited the home of R. W. Rose and taken away their beloved daughter, Miss Mayo, aged 17. She died at 3:30 Sunday evening after an illness of nearly three weeks. Miss Mayo was a kind and obedient girl and of a loving and jovial disposition. No one knew her but to love her. Not only is there a vacancy in her home, but also in her school room where her many school mates miss those sunny smiles.

The remains were laid to rest in the White's Chapel cemetery Tuesday morning. Her many friends and school mates extend their sympathies to the grief stricken family in their sad bereavement.

Have you indigestion, constipation, headache, backache, kidney trouble? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. If it fails get your money back. That's fair. 35 cents, tea or tablet form. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

SHARP PASSAGE

Congressmen Exchange Rather Pointed Jibes.

Washington, March 1.—During consideration of the District of Columbia appropriation bill in the house yesterday, Mr. Scott of Kansas made the declaration that a negro had dined at the White House with President Cleveland during the latter's first administration. The statement was prompted by a reference by Mr. Gilbert (Ky.) to the dining of Booker Washington at the White House. When the name was demanded Mr. Scott said it was C. H. J. Taylor, who was appointed by President Cleveland as recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia.

Mr. Gilbert observed that he and others never had heard of the incident, but the Democrats were not particularly claiming Mr. Cleveland, and Mr. Cochran (Mo.) said it was but cumulative evidence that "there is no better Republican in the country than Grover Cleveland."

Mr. Scott in contrasting Booker Washington with Taylor, said the former was a man of recognized ability, while he declared there was nothing to commend the latter.

A discussion of the question of reciprocity by Mr. Dalzell (Pa.) and Mr. Williams, the minority leader, consumed the greater portion of the day. Another feature of the day was the declaration by Mr. Lovering (Mass.) that while the Republican party was talking about "standing pat" thousands of dollars were being lost to manufacturers and that "our boasted prosperity is fast coming to an end" because of the failure of the party to enlarge the draw-back system and give the new markets which he declared were now demanded. Mr. Lovering was loudly applauded on the minority side when he took issue with his party.

Philippine Finances.

Washington, March 1.—In compliance with an act of congress, the bureau of insular affairs of the war department has just completed a balance sheet showing the receipts and expenditures of the Philippine government for the period beginning with the American occupation on Aug. 13, 1898, to the close of the fiscal year 1902. The fidelity with which these monies were handled is shown by the fact that there is an absolute accountability of all insular funds during the four years referred to, and the itemized expenditures and other credit balance the receipts or debts to the one-half cent.

Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, introduced a bill today amending in several important ways the act providing a civil form of government for the Philippines. The bill was prepared by Secretary Taft.

Arranging for Convention.

Washington, March 1.—Preliminary action toward the preparation of the coliseum building in Chicago for the meeting of the National Republican convention in June, was taken yesterday when acting Chairman Payne, Senator Scott, Secretary Dover and Sergeant-at-Arms Stone, of the National Republican committee on arrangements, approved the architect's plan for seating the delegates in the vast hall.

Congressman Hull Wins.

Des Moines, Ia., March 1.—The early reports of the primaries in Polk county indicate an overwhelming victory for Capt. J. A. T. Hull over his opponent, Judge S. F. Prouty. Capt. Hull carried nearly every precinct in the county.

MERCHANTS' BANQUET.

A Pleasant Evening Passed by Seymour's Business Men.

Monday evening the Grocers' Association and the Retail Merchants' Association held their regular meeting at the office of the secretary, U. F. Lewis. At the close of the meeting a well appointed banquet was served in the Masonic banquet room, at which Hon. Jos. H. Shea, representing the Democrat and Jay C. Smith representing the REPUBLICAN were present as guests. About thirty of the grocers and merchants of Seymour were gathered about the banquet table.

W. L. Johnson presided as toast master and made the opening address outlining briefly the history and purposes of the organization. Toasts were responded to as follows:

The Newspapers and Seymour, J. H. Shea.

Working Together, Jay C. Smith.

Sociability among Business Men, U. F. Lewis.

Organization, J. S. Mills.

Some Stories, Frank Voss.

Local Government, John A. Ross.

Advertising, Nathan Kaufman.

Goodnight, P. A. Nichter.

On account of the lateness of the hour other speakers who were to have been heard were deprived of the privilege of making their addresses.

The evening was an occasion of good fellowship and a knitting together of bonds of mutual interest which will result in good not only to the members of the organization but to the city of Seymour in which they are vitally interested along with hundreds of our other citizens.

Much Married.

The pension agents and attorneys in Southern Indiana in the investigation of a pension claim have unearthed a matrimonial record that is perhaps second to none that has ever existed in this country. It has been discovered that Sophia Denton, a Jackson county native of the early fifties, has been married seven times, that two of her husbands had ventured into matrimony six times, another four times, and that she was the third wife of another of her husbands. The woman is now seventy-five years old and lives near Brownstown.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE NECESSARY MAGAZINE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR

The Review of Reviews is often called a necessity, in recognition of its usefulness in keeping readers "up with the times."

In Presidential election years the REVIEW OF REVIEWS is more than ever "the necessary magazine." Everybody wants to be truly and quickly informed about this or that public question that has forged to the front; to know about the new candidates and personal factors in politics, to have a complete picture at hand of the current movement of history.

In Dr. Shaw's editorials, in its authentic and timely contributed articles, in its brilliant character sketches, in its condensations and reviews of all the important articles of other magazines, and in its hundred a month of valuable portraits, witty cartoons, and interesting views, the REVIEW OF REVIEWS gives the much desired news of the world's and our own progress. "The World under a Field-glass" is the way one subscriber describes it. Men in public life, like President Theodore Roosevelt, the members of Congress, and the great captains of industry, who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided it is "indispensable."

Pleasantly Surprised.

Mrs. W. H. Seulke was very pleasantly surprised last evening when forty-five of her friends gathered at her home on South Chestnut street and reminded her of the anniversary of her birth, an event which had not occurred for eight years. But this did not make her any younger than 44 years old. She received several beautiful presents. Music and games and social conversation were the features of the evening. Refreshments were served and all departed at a late hour wishing Mrs. Seulke many more such birthdays.

Colds Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Penner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by W. F. Peter Drug Co., and A. J. Pellens.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by C. W. Milhous.

TAKEN TO BEDFORD

James McDonald Returned to Bedford for Examination.

HELD TO GRAND JURY

Alleged Murderer of Miss Schafer Entered a Plea of Not Guilty.

Met at Station by His Wife, the Accused Seemed to Enjoy Attention Attracted.

Bedford, Ind., March 1.—James McDonald, accused of being the murderer of Sarah C. Schafer, was brought from Bloomington yesterday and arraigned before Mayor Smith. He entered a plea of not guilty and Mayor Smith bound him over to the grand jury.

McDonald was kept in the mayor's office, guarded by Sheriff Smith and Detective Reed, until the 10:08 train, when he was returned to Bloomington. He would have been kept in the Lawrence county jail had it not been thought that this place is so unsafe that the prisoner might have effected his escape. He was joined at the station as he was being returned, by his wife and brothers-in-law. The waiting room was crowded and McDonald, as he smoked a good cigar, seemed to enjoy the attention he drew. There was absolutely no demonstration at any time during his stay in Bedford.

FATHER'S BRUTAL ACT

Nearly Kills Child by Pouring Whisky Down Its Throat.

Michigan City, Ind., March 1.—Upon going to his home, Anson Champton, a laborer, nearly killed his two-year-old son by administering whisky to the little one. Taking the child on his knee, after he had created a disturbance with his family, Champton poured nearly all the contents of a half-pint bottle of whisky down the child's throat. The police were called and Champton was removed to jail. The child lay in a stupor all night, but physicians think it will recover. Champton was given a lengthy jail sentence.

Wabash Storm Swept.

Wabash, Ind., March 1.—A severe hail and rain storm visited this city. The electrical display was vivid. Lightning struck the home of Samuel Harsh, knocking off the chimney and partly wrecking the building. W. W. Ford's barn was also damaged, and a steer was killed. The hail, about the size of moth balls, whitened the ground and ruined the Wabash Greenhouse company's building, destroying the flowers. The loss is $1,500. The rivers are rising and the Ft. Wayne & Southwestern interurban railway is flooded by the Wabash, no cars entering the city.

It Was Loaded.

Portland, Ind., March 1.—The dead body of Emanuel Shaneyfelt, sixteen years old, was found lying by the roadside, near New Pittsburgh. A revolver was near by. His right hand was powder-burned, but his lips and face were untouched, although blood was streaming from his mouth. The bullet seemingly passed to the back of the mouth without touching the teeth. The revolver belonged to the youth, and it is believed that he shot himself accidentally while looking into the barrel and ejecting empty shells.

Death of Laporte Pioneer.

Laporte, Ind., March 1.—H. F. Huntley, a Laporte miller and a brother of Mrs. Charles Emory Smith, of Philadelphia, is dead. Mr. Huntley was born at Dayton, O., sixty-five years ago, but he had lived in Laporte for fifty years. He served in an Indiana regiment during the civil war. He was severely wounded at Day's Gap, Ala.

Boy Fatally Hurt.

English, Ind., March 1.—Lawrence McLester, eighteen, was seriously burned, early Sunday morning, while trying to save his mother's horses from a burning stable. He may not recover. He said he was particularly anxious to save the horses, because they were his father's last gift to his mother.

"Jack-the-Hugger" Caught.

Brazil, Ind., March 1.—An Italian giving his name as Tony Conway, who cannot speak a word of English, is in jail here, charged with being the "Jack-the-Hugger" who has caused so much trouble to women who have been compelled to go out without escorts.

Killed by Brother.

Marion, Ind., March 1.—John A. Jackson, eighteen, accidentally killed his brother, Charles, four, at their home, near Weaver, southwest of Marion. John was cleaning a shotgun, when it was discharged. John has smallpox, and the home is under quarantine.

Minister Overcome.

Kokomo, Ind., March 1.—Rev. L. J. Naftzger, who assisted the firemen to pull down the burning walls of the Main street Christian church, was taken suddenly ill in the street and is in a serious condition.

TREACHEROUS MOROS

Summary Punishment Inflicted by Major Scott.

Washington, March 1.—Gen. Wade, in a cablegram to the war department, dated Manila, Feb. 27, advises the department of a report of Gen. Wood concerning an engagement at Jolo, on the 14th inst., with the remnants of Hassan's Cotta Moros. The American expedition was in charge of Maj. Hugo L. Scott. During the fight, Gen. Wood states, firing twice was stopped to give the Moros a chance to surrender, but they declined. The entire body, he adds, with the exception of Hassan, is either dead or captured, and Hassan is located. Second Lieut. Eugene R. West, Eighteenth battery, field artillery, was seriously wounded in the thigh. Six other men were wounded. It is said at the war department that this destruction of Hassan's band is a case of retributive justice. Maj. Scott suffered at the hands of this fanatical Moro. The chief enticed the major off into the jungle, pretending to be friendly, and in ambush shot him. Since that time Maj. Scott has been on his trail and now has destroyed his band. Hassan, who was a priest, is one of the irreconcilables. When the navy was making some surveys a year ago, off the coast of Jolo, Hassan construed the setting up of survey marks as an act of hostility and attacked the troops. He came into Gen. Sumner's headquarters under summons but made his escape and ever since has been at war. His band is believed to have numbered about 600 and if entirely destroyed, as the cablegram reports, the battle must have been of some proportions.

CORBETT STILL CHAMPION

Fight Stopped in the Eleventh Round by Referee.

San Francisco, March 1.—Champion Featherweight Young Corbett had no difficulty in retaining his laurels last night, defeating Dave Sullivan, of New York, in the 11th round of a scheduled 20-round contest. Corbett left the ring without a mark, while on the other hand Sullivan received a terrific beating only the merciful action of Referee Graney in stopping the contest in the 11th round saving the New Yorker from having his face beaten into a pulp. Sullivan put up a game fight and, while out-boxed, out-fought and out-generated, he gave the champion cause for worry in one round. Taking another feature out of the fight, which was Sullivan's excessive gameness, the contest was never in doubt.

Reservation to be Opened.

Washington, March 1.—Some excellent lands, including twelve townships of the Red Lake Indian reservation in northwestern Minnesota and a part of the Rosebud reservation—about 416,000 acres—in Gregory county, S. D., will be opened for settlement in a few months. President Roosevelt has conceived the idea that it would be to the interest of the government to adopt the plan of disposing of the land by auction, and for some time he has been talking on the subject with senators and representatives in congress who are interested in it.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge often expressed that Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills a wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and non-detracting effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, but sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmor, Swamp-Root Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
